Mr. Dulles:

25X1

s. Noted [redacted]
[redacted] respecting Ambassador Conant's views on the reunification question and in particular Conant's interest in obtaining from CIA any indications that the Soviets might let Pankow down and asked if we could not get something to Amb. Conant on this. Mr. Helms undertook to look into this.

Mr. Wisner:

Suggested it might be well for CIA to get in touch with George Kennan and obtain his views for use in our preparations for the Summit Conference. The Director agreed and said Ray Cline would do this...quietly.

Col. White:

Noted that we were fast approaching our personnel ceiling. The Director asked Col. White to prepare a brief memo on this and discuss it with him.

Mr. Amory:
