TOP SECRET

DM-490

25X1

DEPUTIES* MEETING

	Monday, 11 June 1956
·	PRESENT: Mr. Dulles, Gen. Cabell, Mr. Wisner, Col. White, Messrs. Kirkpatrick, Helms, Bissell, Roosevelt, Sheldon, Gen. Truscott, Mr.	25X1
	Mr. Dulles:
	a. Noted a cable from reporting that the Supreme Soviet is holding a special meeting on 13 June and asked Mr. Sheldon to determine whether we had any further information on this.	25X1
	·	25X1
25X1 25X1	b. Noted he had received a letter from again expressing interest in taking a trip and asked if such a trip might be of value to the Agency. ALTIUN to prepare an acknowledgment and DD/P to furnish the Director recommendations.	25X1
		25X1
25X1	e. Referred to a speech by the Vice President on the Soviet Union which appeared in the New York Times on 8 June and noted it was one of the best pieces he had ever read. ACTION: Mr. Wisner to obtain comments for DCI.
	f. Noted he has talked to	25X1
25X1	business, it did have foreign intelligence implications and asked Mr. to find out from the what they know about this matter.	25X1
	Mr. Wisner: Reported that BBC had been broadcasting excerpts of Khrushchev's speech before the 20th Party Congress to Russia, in Russian, and these broadcasts had not been jammed.

Mr. Kirkpatrick:  a. Briefly reported on the activities of the Killian Committee and noted that the Committee had chosen Greece as the country on which to base its survey of intelligence reporting. The Director said he hoped the Committee would select the time of the Greek elections as the period on which to base this survey. Mr. Kirkpatr said he thought this could be arranged.  C. Reported he had received a query from Bill King of the Vice President's office as to the extent of our contributions to the The Director said that while we had in the past made limited contributions to this organization we had taken the position that its activities were concerned with humanitarian and refugee problems and had therefore referred to ICA requests for support.    Description of the Committee Complete out that we might expect this individual to complain at high levels or possibly publicly that CIA is not doing its job, etc.    Description of the CIA is not doing its job, etc.   Description of the CIA.   Description of the CIA.	Mr. Helms:
a. Briefly reported on the activities of the Killian Committee and noted that the Committee had chosen Greece as the country on which to base its survey of intelligence reporting. The Director said he hoped the Committee would select the time of the Greek elections as the period on which to base this survey. Mr. Kirkpatr said he thought this could be arranged.  C. Reported he had received a query from Bill King of the Vice President's office as to the extent of our contributions to the past made limited contributions to this organization we had taken the position that its activities were concerned with humanitarian and refugee problems and had therefore referred to ICA requests for support.  pointed out that we might expect this individual to complain at high levels or possibly publicly that CIA is not doing its job, etc.  was not suitable for continued employment with CIA. The Director comme and noted that the Committee had chosen Greece as the country on which to base its survey of intelligence reporting. The Director said he hoped the Committee would select the time of the Greek elections as the period on which to base this survey. Mr. Kirkpatr said he thought this could be arranged.  C. Reported he had received a query from Bill King of the Vice President's office as to the extent of our contributions to the The Director said that while we had in the past made limited contributions to this organization we had taken the position that its activities were concerned with humanitarian and refugee problems and had therefore referred to ICA requests for support.  pointed out that we might expect this individual to complain at high levels or possibly publicly that CIA is not doing its job, etc.  was not suitable for continued employment with CIA. The Director comme	Mr. Kirkpatrick:
Vice President's office as to the extent of our contributions to the The Director said that while we had in the past made limited contributions to this organization we had taken the position that its activities were concerned with humanitarian and refugee problems and had therefore referred to ICA requests for support.  pointed out that we might expect this individual to complain at high levels or possibly publicly that CIA is not doing its job, etc.  was not suitable for continued employment with CIA. The Director comme	and noted that the Committee had chosen Greece which to base its survey of intelligence report said he hoped the Committee would select the tielections as the period on which to base this s	as the country on ting. The Director ime of the Greek
Vice President's office as to the extent of our contributions to the The Director said that while we had in the past made limited contributions to this organization we had taken the position that its activities were concerned with humanitarian and refugee problems and had therefore referred to ICA requests for support.  pointed out that we might expect this individual to complain at high levels or possibly publicly that CIA is not doing its job, etc.  was not suitable for continued employment with CIA. The Director comme
Vice President's office as to the extent of our contributions to the The Director said that while we had in the past made limited contributions to this organization we had taken the position that its activities were concerned with humanitarian and refugee problems and had therefore referred to ICA requests for support.  pointed out that we might expect this individual to complain at high levels or possibly publicly that CIA is not doing its job, etc.  was not suitable for continued employment with CIA. The Director comme	c. Reported he had received a query from	Bill King of the complain at high levels or possibly publicly that CIA is not doing its job, etc.  was not suitable for continued employment with CIA. The Director comme	Vice President's office as to the extent of our the The Director said that the past made limited contributions to this ord taken the position that its activities were contarian and refugee problems and had therefore	r contributions to t while we had in ganization we had neerned with humani-
complain at high levels or possibly publicly that CIA is not doing its job, etc.  was not suitable for continued employment with CIA. The Director comme complain at high levels or possibly publicly that CIA is not doing its job, etc.  was not suitable for continued employment with CIA. The Director comme not suitable for continued employment with CIA. The Director comme	complain at high levels or possibly publicly the not suitable for continued employment with CIA. The Director comme		l mr es c
	_	