MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Minutes of the May Senior Staff Meeting

25X1 1. Mr. Dulles opened the meeting by commenting on the Agency's budget. He stated that the House is and always has been sympathetic to our budget and thinks that it is a reasonable one and is in good shape. He remarked that had he known last summer what the present world situation would have been, he would have recommended a larger budget for this coming year. Mr. Dulles also commented on the construction of the Agency's new building at Langley and stated that in June of this year bids will be opened for the construction of the foundation and that in approximately three months later bids will be opened for the construction of the building itself. He remarked that the present plans for the building is inadequate to house all of the Agency's personnel and that if present plans are carried out we will have approximately [] people who will be unable to get into the new building. Mr. Dulles felt that it was unwise at the present time to ask Congress for an additional appropriation to enlarge the building.

2. General Cabell commented on the lack of security in telephone conversations throughout the Agency and cautioned the group to be more security minded when engaging in conversations with others in the Agency.

3. General Truscott gave a brief rundown on the status of the NSCIDs, advising that NSCID #1 thru 5 has now been approved by the IAC. He also advised that NSCID #6 concerning ELINT has tentative IAC approval and that NSCID #7 concerning critical communication has been delayed for the time being. General Truscott remarked that the progress made in the NSCIDs reflect a very worthwhile achievement and he feels that the relations of the Agency in the intelligence community will be greatly improved as a result thereof.

25X1 4. Mr. Stewart gave a brief report on the Federal Service Health Campaign, Federal Service Joint Crusade and the United Givers Fund Drive. In the Federal Service Health Crusade the sum of $22,407 was collected with [] of the Agency participating; the sum of $9,619 was collected in the Federal Service Joint Crusade with [] of the Agency participating and that the sum of $130,000 was collected as a result of the United Givers Fund Drive as reflected in the sum of $101,000 collected in the previous campaign. [] briefly reported on the Selection-Out Procedures which has 17 May as the first date set under this procedure and that anyone desiring to appeal his case may file an appeal with the IG.
