Mr. Allen W. Dulles, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

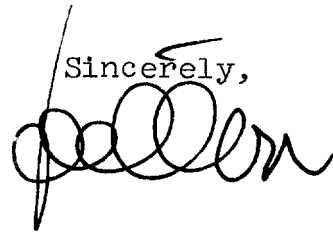

Dear Allen:

Thank you for your note of August 29
responding to mine about the TIME piece.
At least we agree that that fellow was not hiding his light under any bushel.

I was in Washington Friday and tried to reach you, but your office said you were out of the country. I hope to have better luck next time.

Meantime, with affectionate regards to you and Clover, in which Lena would join,
I am

Sincerely,

Dear Dillon:

I had noted the interesting article to which you refer and did not feel at all neglected that my name was omitted from the list of those who worked on the document in question.

As a matter of fact, C. D. did a good job but it would have been still better if it had been a little more anonymous.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
