Dear General Shepherd:

On behalf of Mr. Dulles, I should like to thank you for your letter of 9 December concerning the series of lectures on international communism given to the members of the Inter-American Defense Board.

It is always a pleasure to learn of the contributions made by our senior people, and I am gratified to receive your generous comments on the results of the program and the individual performance of Mr. Lyman Kirkpatrick and Mr. [redacted]. Your kindness in bringing this matter to our attention is indeed appreciated.

I am forwarding your letter to Messrs. Kirkpatrick and [redacted] for their information.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
