1. (C) Action Requested: On 15 December 1977, the students of Operations Course (OC) 3-77 will hold their graduation dinner at the [redacted] Club. On this occasion, it is customary to have a keynote speaker to address the students as they embark on their careers in the Directorate of Operations. On behalf of the students and staff at the [redacted] I would like to extend to you an invitation to address the students on this occasion as you so graciously did for the preceding OC class on 5 May 1977.

3. (C) Recommendation: The students would be keenly interested in your views concerning problems now confronting the Agency and your views on what the future holds for the Agency. If your schedule permits, I suggest that you might plan to address this group for about 30 minutes and then answer their questions. You and your party could arrive at [redacted] 1730 on 15 December. The graduation dinner will be held at the [redacted]. Cocktails will be served beginning at 1800. Dinner will be at 1900. It is anticipated that you could begin your remarks at approximately 2000. Later in the evening, the students generally have a program of light entertainment during which they "roast" the instructor staff. You could depart [redacted] at your convenience, either the same evening or the following morning.
