MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: Anthony A. Lapham
General Counsel

SUBJECT: Submission of Your Statement of Employment and Financial Interests

1. The attached letter will do the trick if (a) all your securities (stocks, bonds, options, etc.) are in a blind trust; (b) any continuing financial interests you may have (pensions, etc.), arising from prior employment or business associations, were reported in your last statement; (c) any positions you hold as partner, director, or trustee of any profit or non-profit corporation or other enterprise were reported in your last statement; (d) you have not incurred any indebtedness subsequent to your last statement, other than a mortgage on a personal residence or indebtedness related to ordinary household and living expenses, and (e) you have not acquired any real estate interests, other than interest in a personal residence, subsequent to your last statement.

2. If all the conditions above are not met, the form report must be completed, at least in part.

do I need to keep sending in this damn form if my holdings are in a blind trust, as they are?
please return.

SUBJECT: Filing of Your Statement of Employment and Financial Interests

TO: Heads of Agencies, Certain Presidential Appointees in the Executive Office of the President and Members of Committees, Boards and Commissions Appointed by the President

FROM: Robert E. Hampton
Chairman

It is time again for the annual submission of your statement of employment and financial interests. This filing is required under Section 401 of Executive Order 11222.

In the statement, a copy of which is enclosed, you must report any changes in or additions to the last statement you filed with my office. You should report your holdings and interests as of June 30th of this year. If there are no changes or additions, a letter to that effect will suffice.

Your reply before July 15 will be appreciated.
