MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Meeting of Agency Officers with Ambassador Andrew Young et al on 27 June 1977

1. Ambassador Young, Mr. Stoney Cooke, Executive Assistant to Ambassador Young, and Under Secretary Moose met at Headquarters for discussions and lunch on 27 June 1977 with the Director of Central Intelligence, the Deputy Director of Central Intelligence, the Associate Deputy Director for Operations, the National Intelligence Officer for Africa, [redacted] of the Comptroller's Staff and Acting Chief, Africa Division. Major topics of discussion were southern Africa and Cubans in Africa.

2. Ambassador Young needs maximum intelligence support on the issue of Cuba in Africa. He is now engaged in the UN on this subject -- specifically, Mozambique's desire to bring in outside (read Cuban) troops to protect against Rhodesian military incursions.

[redacted]

-- Action: NIO for Africa should coordinate an analysis on the feasibility of taking a political initiative to impact on Cuban policy in Africa, specifically in Mozambique and Ethiopia, and the changing role of Cuba in Angola.

-- Action: ADDO will discuss with the Deputy Director for Intelligence the need to expedite a report on the internal dynamics of Angola that now rests in DDI.

3. Ambassador Young exchanged various views with Agency [redacted] He and his State Department colleagues were briefed by the DDCI and the ADDO [redacted]

[REDACTED] Under Secretary Moose was generally negative on such expansion, but Ambassador Young and Mr. Cookes were more amenable. Other matters discussed were the likelihood of evolutionary change in South Africa, South African leadership, South Africa's likely response to a Cuban move into Mozambique, the South African-Israeli connection, and the Administration's inclination to assist Israel if Israel can separate itself from South Africa. Namibia and Zimbabwe were also discussed.
