Admiral Stansfield Turner
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Stan:

On behalf of our corporate, government and diplomatic associates, I would like to express our sincere thanks for your magnificent contribution to our Joint Council Quarterly Meeting last Monday evening. Your remarks were not only a high point of the day but also of the year.

Since Monday, we have received numerous comments from participants saying how much they enjoyed hearing you and getting a chance to meet you. Many made a point of observing that we are both fortunate and privileged to have a man of your exceptional ability at the head of the Central Intelligence Agency.

I know our associates were most interested in your observations both on the current military and economic status of the United States vis-a-vis the Soviet Union and also on future developments in the Soviet Union's domestic and political affairs. In addition, your comments on your hopes and expectations for the Agency and its intelligence operations were clearly of concern and interest to our audience.

It was a particular pleasure to have both you and Pat at the head table with us. The lively dinner discussion made an already exciting evening all the more enjoyable.

Again, Stan, our sincere appreciation and best wishes for the holidays.

Cordially,

Gene E. Bradley
President
