Robert Blum, Esq.,
Room 3-C-746,
Pentagon Building,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Bob:

Many thanks for your letter of 18 June. I am back for a brief afternoon respite from the Convention.

I was talking with Bill Jackson today about the second paragraph of your letter. The person named was put up as a type rather than necessarily as an individual. However, we made it perfectly clear that it was our understanding that if such a person took it, he would become a civilian and give up thought of any further service except, of course, that he should presumably be protected in his pension rights.

I am trying to arrange a meeting shortly after my return from Philadelphia with Bill and Matt.

Faithfully,

A. W. Dulles
