

AGENDA

WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE ON FALLOUT PROTECTION

CABINET ROOM

JANUARY 25, 1960

- |     |  |                      |
|-----|--|----------------------|
| I   | Opening Statement  | The President        |
|     | Response   | Governor Rockefeller |
| II  | Nature of the Threat andImportance of Civil Defense --   |                      |
|     | (a) Russian Posture for Offenseand Civil Defense   | Mr. Allen Dulles     |
|     | (b) Relation to Foreign Policy   | Secretary Herter     |
|     | (c) Relation to Military Policy  | Secretary Gates      |
| III | Effects of Nuclear Weapons andthe Nature of Fallout  | Mr. John McCone      |
| IV  | Feasibility of Fallout Protection(Materials, Designs, Standards) andRelation of Fallout Protection toRadiological Defense, Evacuation,and Recovery | Governor Hoegh       |
| V   | Need for State and Local Initiativein Stimulating Individual Action  | Governor Rockefeller |

VI

Federal Action in Support of State and Local Initiative --

- (a) Medical Supplies and Personnel Secretary Flemming
- (b) Food Supplies Under Secretary Morse
- (c) Home Shelter Financing Mr. Norman Mason
- (d) Education and Information Governor Hoegh

VII

Elements of a State Program for Fallout Protection Governor Rockefeller

VIII

Conclusion - Luncheon with The President

*****

Special Committee on Civil Defense of the Governors' Conference - Nelson A. Rockefeller, New York, Chairman

Edmund G. Brown, California
George D. Clyde, Utah

Ernest F. Hollings, South Carolina
G. Mennen Williams, Michigan

Ex-Officio

J. Caleb Boggs, Delaware, Chairman, Executive Committee of Governors' Conference
Brevard Cnihfield, Secretary of the Governors' Conference