Dr. Brockway McMillan
D/NRO
Washington, D. C.

Dear Brock,

We have two recent examples of study groups being set up under NRO auspices to examine current problems. The first relates to photographic film processing resources, and the second to follow-on for the Drell-Chapman Committee. In both cases individuals have been requested by name to represent this Agency from Program B on these activities. As we discussed over the telephone, I consider it quite inappropriate for the NRO Staff to be designating individuals in CIA for such purposes. Rather, you should make your needs known, and we will select the best-qualified people in view of their other time commitments to both CIA and NRO programs. Although we have already reached agreement on this by telephone, I thought it might be useful to make this policy a matter of record for your staff and people here in the Agency.

Sincerely,

50X1
