Dear Pres:

Many thanks for your letter of January 8 on behalf of [redacted]

We are now looking into the possibilities of utilizing [redacted] experience and talents and I will certainly let you know the outcome of our explorations. Should it develop that unfortunately we are not able to find a suitable position for [redacted] I shall be happy to comply with your request for suggestions as to where he might be profitably used.

With best wishes.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles

Dear Allen:

Clarence Randall tells me that he is forwarding to you, my letter to him of December 13 concerning [redacted]

STAT

[redacted] is very highly and authentically recommended to me by Mr. Randall, and, for that reason, I am very glad that his name is being brought to your attention. As Cappy Baldwin says, "It seems to me a crime that this man's talents are not being used by the National Administration."

If he is interviewed on your behalf, and you find no need for his services in CIA, perhaps you could give me a report on the interview, with any recommendations as to where you think his services might be useful.

With warm personal regards, and looking forward to seeing you before long, I am,

Sincerely yours,

/s/
