It was a real pleasure to talk with you in New York last month. I hope that your trip to Europe was an easy one and that your plans in France are working out.

I have talked with my associates about you. As I told you, we are currently adding very few people to our staff. There seems to be no possibility of our finding a place for you at the present time or in the near future. However, we are happy to have a record of your background in case a vacancy occurs.

With best wishes,
