Dear Pres:

Cook

I have had my people go into the matter of _____ _____ which you asked about in your letter of 28 October 1953.

STAT

As indicated in my letter to you of 10 October, we have carefully checked and find that this Agency has no immediate interest in _____

_____ We are, however, looking into other aspects of his career with the thought he may be able to contribute to our activities. If anything turns up I will let you know.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Pres:

In reply to your letter of 28 October 1953, we have looked into the possibility of utilizing the services of _____ concerning whom you have written us.

STAT

I have asked my people to review the papers which he submitted with great care, and at the present time there does not appear to be any possibility to employ him. However, we will continue to review his papers further, and if there is any way in which _____ can contribute to our endeavors I will certainly let you know.

STAT

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,
