

9 January 1950

Major General S. LeRoy Irwin, GSC
Director of Intelligence
General Staff, United States Army
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear General Irwin:

Thank you very much for the kind words expressed in your letter of 8 January 1950 with regard to my lecture to the Twelfth Course Class of the Strategic Intelligence School.

I shall be delighted to address the Thirteenth Course Class, and, so far as I can determine now, 1140 hours on 14 February 1950 will be convenient.

Sincerely,

sgd & disp via ER 1/9/50

R. H. HILLENKOTTER
