Rear Admiral C. R. Brown, USN
President, Naval War College, Acting
Naval War College
Newport, Rhode Island

Dear Cat:

In reply to your letter of 8 September 1949, I shall be available for a talk at the War College on 26 September. My schedule is as follows:

The following time is for Standard Time, effective 25 September:

Arrive Providence, 26 Sep 49 - 7:05 am - Train #172

Leave Providence, 26 Sep 49 - 3:50 pm - NY NH & H
Train #171

Arrive Washington, 26 Sep 49 - 11:35 pm

I am sorry about the early arrival at Providence, but things are going along so rapidly here that I cannot be away for a longer time and, after the recent publicity regarding airplane trips, I should hesitate to ask the Navy for a plane.

I should be delighted to have luncheon with you and, after the luncheon, I should like about an hour to visit my sister-in-law who lives in Newport, before leaving for Providence to catch a train back to Washington.

Sincerely,

sgd & disp 9/13/49 to ER
