Lieutenant General Vernon Walters
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear General Walters:

From my Army protocol duties in New York City (Fort Hamilton) to being the Editor of the Defense Management Journal has been quite a quieting experience, but an enjoyable one. My opportunities to provide you assistance while visiting or transiting NYC were memorable experiences, especially the 1969 visit of the then Chief of Staff of the French Armed Forces, General Michel M.L. Fourquet, and the time Pan Am lost your oversea flight reservations.

STAT My purpose in writing is to introduce [redacted]
[redacted] due for separation 15 September, who has interviewed STAT for an editor's position with the Agency. His contact has been [redacted] and resulted from an
STAT initial interview conducted at the Crystal City Marriott job fair.
[redacted] has completed the necessary application forms. He is well qualified as a journalist and could be of value to the Agency in its program.

STAT [redacted]

I recommend him for your consideration and subsequent employment with the Agency.

Sincerely,

ROBERT F. GOERLICH
Major, USA
