STAT

Your Form 171 was recently forwarded to this Agency with the indication that your interest in employment with us continues.

I have forwarded your application to the appropriate officials, who will review your qualifications in light of our current needs. We will be in touch with you further as soon as our review has been completed. I should advise you, however, that our employment situation has not changed to any great extent since you were interviewed in July of 1974. Our hiring remains extremely limited due to continuing reductions in our manpower ceiling.

We appreciate your interest, and you may be sure that you will receive every consideration.

Sincerely,

(Signed) F. W. M. Janney

SUBJECT:

This man is really excellent. He has had an interview in Rosslyn about a year ago - at that time they asked about his foreign language ability... He doesn't have any! MAC is a super administrative administrator. I want wish we had him with us, but we don't have a space and can get another one - Best of Everything
