1. TOO MANY INSTRUCTIONS IS BUREACRACY

We have been seeing many undesirable aspects in both government agencies and party organizations such as issuing too many unnecessary orders and instructions to bother lower echelons. This is bureaucracy, which Marshal KIM Il-sung especially emphasized we must eliminate. We must fight against all the bad aspects of bureaucracy in order to strengthen the Party and make ourselves good servants of the people.

14. MERITS AND DEFICIENCIES IN WORKS OF LEADING GROUPS . . .

In order to improve the work of leading groups of the Party, members should have lectures on actual works. They should keep in touch with actual work. And counsels of the groups must be improved in quality.

15. PROVINCIAL NEWSPAPERS MUST REFLECT THE POLICIES OF THE PARTY AND GOVERNMENT . . .

The provincial press is one of the mightiest arms of the Party for mobilizing people toward the practice of its policies. Some of the papers fail to reflect the policies of the Party and government properly. The HANBUK ILBO (North Hamkyong Province Daily News) has been neglecting to explain those important articles such as KIM Il-sung's speech, "Let us reinforce the People's Army;" the Cabinet Decision on strengthening of ri people's committees' work, etc. The PYONG BUK ILBO (North Pyongan Province Daily News) has been publishing few editorials and essays on such important subjects as ideological development in working classes and doctrine of Party members. Each provincial Party committee must show responsible efforts for improving the quality of its provincial paper.

1. PLOWING AND SEEDING . . .

Premier KIM Il-sung has told us that to direct and guide the farmers toward a big harvest is the role of the People's Committees. Some of our People's Committee workers, however, are doing their work with weak political zeal and bureaucratic methods. Leaders of farming villages should spread new farm methods to all villagers.

2. FARMERS VOW TO WIN BIG HARVEST . . .

A meeting was held by farmers in an (unnamed) ri, Toicho county, Hankyong Nam Province. YI Chun-ok, Ri Party Committee Chairman, KONG Sung-ki, Party Cell Chief, and several farmers made speeches. They appealed farmers to help each other in the food producing front and to finish spring seeding by April 20.

11. COMPLACENCY AND LACK OF RESPONSIBILITY ARE ENEMIES IN OUR WORK . . .
The leaders of the NK Ministry of Light Industry should correct their attitudes of complacency and lack of responsibility which has caused a big drop in production. The neglect of their work came from the corrupt thinking that their own advantages and interests are above those of the state. They should increase their political ability and business effort.
12. FOR THE IMPROVEMENT OF THE QUALITY OF INSPECTION WORKS . . .
In order to improve our inspection work, perfunctory and belated methods should be discarded. Leading members should join in this work and make the inspection as thorough as possible. The defects found out should be corrected, and the inspection should not end only as an inspection.
by WON Tong-kun, Vice-chairman of People's Inspection Committee
13. MODERN FARM METHODS ARE SPREAD . . .
The Hamgyong Puk Province People's Committee workers are pouring their ingenious effort to encourage and guide the farmers to an early and effective spring seeding. They learned much from the experience of last year's farming.
