A. Creation of the Institute

The Institute of Geography was established on the basis of the Governmental decree of October 13, 1953. Its aim is to carry out research in the field of geography. The Institute belongs to III Department of the Polish Academy of Sciences which is concerned with Mathematic-Physical, Chemical and Geologo-Geographical Sciences. The Institute is the Academy's independent scientific centre.

B. Aims

The Institute's activities comprise research in geographical sciences. The Institute faces the following tasks:

1. carrying out geographical research according to predetermined plans
2. linking of the results of studies with practice
3. co-operation and exchange of experience with national and foreign institutions in the field of research and taking advantage of the results of investigations
4. preparing and publishing of scientific publications
5. training of the scientific staff
6. organizing of scientific conferences and meetings
7. general supervision - in accordance with the directions of proper authorities - upon the work of the centres not belonging to the Polish Academy of Sciences.

The Institute does not conduct didactic occupations itself.

C. Authorities

At the head of the Institute are: The Director, Directory and Scientific Council.

The Director - Ord.Prof. Dr. Stanisław LESZCZYCKI; the Deputy Director - Extraord.Prof. Dr. Jerzy KOSTROWICKI; the Scientific Secretary - Dr. Antoni KUKLINSKI.

The Director conducts scientific works as a whole, he manages personal matters of the scientific and administrative staff of the Institute, elaborates research programmes and reports on the Institute's activities, and executes the resolutions of the Presidium of the Academy and of the III Department.

The Directory collaborates with the Director in managing the works of the Institute and discusses - when suggested by the Director - the matters being of greater importance to the Institute. The Directory is composed of: the director, heads of the departments, sections and subsections of the Institute and other members of the staff invited by the director /in 1959 - 18 persons altogether/.

The Scientific Council. The President - Ord.Prof.Dr. Julian CZYŻEWSKI; Vice-President - Ord.Prof.Dr.Rajmund GALON. The Scientific Council consists of 19 members. They are: Professors: Florian BARCIŃSKI, Jan DYLIK, Kazimierz DZIEWOŃSKI, Maria KIEŁCZEWSKA-ZALESKA, Mieczysław KLIMASZEWSKI, Jerzy KONDRACKI, Jerzy KOSTROWICKI, Stanisław LESZCZYCKI, Bolesław OLSZEWICZ, Stanisław PIETKIEWICZ, Franciszek UHORCZAK, Józef WĄSOWICZ, August ZIERHOFFER. Docents: Michał JANISZEWSKI, Jadwiga KOBENDZA, Janusz PASZYŃSKI, Bogodar WINID.

The Scientific Council discusses and approves the plans of researches of the Institute, supervises editorial activities and the course of training of the scientific staff. The Council graduates, approves proposals of giving scientific degrees to independent and assistant scientific workers, it also deals with other matters suggested by the Academy's authorities and by the director of the Institute.

D. Structure of the Institute and its staff
