2. The following are locations of public institutions in Galati:
- a. The municipal council and the district council - on the left-hand side of Strada Republicei, coming from the harbor, between Strada Visinski and Strada 23 August, in the former Mihai Kogalniceanu high school for girls (an L-shaped, single-story building).
 - b. The provincial council - nearly opposite the municipal council, in a three-story building, the former Palat Administrativ.
 - c. The city law court - on the left-hand side of Strada Ostrovski, coming from the harbor, in a former private single-story house.
 - d. The district and provincial law court - on Strada Nicolae Balcescu, north of Strada 23 August, in a former private single-story villa which at one time housed the Sailors' Club.
 - e. The provincial Securitate and Militia headquarters - on the right-hand side of Strada Brailei, coming from the town center, past the former Scoala Normala, in a large, three-story building, which was erected in 1956-1958. The entrance to the Securitate is through the left door and the entrance to the Militia is through the right door. The building is surrounded by a low iron fence.
 - f. Another building housing Securitate offices - on the right-hand side of Strada Republicei, coming from the harbor, corner of Strada 6 Martie, near the Episcopie Church, in a very large, former private home. This building is surrounded by a high brick wall so that it cannot be seen from the outside. Another wall was built between this building and the church.
