3. Offices of the Oblast Construction Repairs Directorate (Obl. Zhil Stroy Upravleniye), which was subordinate to the Lvov Sovnarkhoz, were located at 74 Zelenaya ulitsa. The directorate was engaged in rebuilding residential and office buildings and had five construction offices (stroy uchastky): No. 1 at 6 Zelenaya ulitsa, No. 2 at 20 ulitsa Chkalova, No. 3 at 11 ulitsa Bernadynska, No. 4 on ulitsa Kalinina, and No. 5 on ulitsa Botvina. Each construction office employed about 300 to 350 workers. The directorate also had an electrical and mechanical works office (mekh. uchastok), located at 24 ulitsa Chapayeva, which employed about 20 to 25 workers in the repair of elevators and electrical systems in the restored buildings.
4. The following industrial plants were in Lvov:
- A meat packing combine (myasokombinat), which included an abattoir, a sausage factory, and a meat canning plant. The combine employed about 1,000 workers and also had a laboratory which reportedly produced vaccines for the army (details unknown).
 - The "Kontakt" Plant (Zavod Kontakt), on ulitsa Turgeneva, employed about 300 workers in the production of electricity meters and small telephone exchanges.
 - A large refrigeration plant and a new bicycle factory had been established in the Novyy Lvov section, which had been under construction since World War II.
 - A small electric lamp factory, which employed about 100 workers, occupied the former premises of the bicycle factory.
 - An oil refinery, which produced benzine, paraffin, and lubricants. The crude oil was shipped from Baku.
 - A cotton thread mill, on ulitsa Bogdana Khmelnitskogo, employed about 400 workers.
 - Glass Plant No. 2, established after World War II, employed about 250 workers. The plant produced glasses and jars and was about to produce cut glass utensils in 1959.
 - A railroad locomotive and car repair plant (Lvovskiy Parovo-Remontnyy Zavod), which employed about 2000 workers.
 - Glass Plant No. 1, on ulitsa Shevchenko, employed about 500 workers and produced mainly ordinary sheet glass reinforced with barbed wire.

Most of the industrial [power?] plants in Lvov and one of the turbines at the municipal power station (GRES) were operated by gas.
