MEMORANDUM TO THE FILE

FROM: A/ALS - Walter F. Weiss
SUBJECT: Revision of Tax Code - Employee Relocation Council

Peter J. DiDomenico, Jr. of the Employee Relocation Council met with Erle Curtis of A/ALS September 6. DiDomenico gave him the attached tax code revision which he is discussing with the Office of Tax Policy of Treasury. He claimed Treasury is receptive but they asked ERC to include some time limit. ERC is considering five years as a reasonable time period.

The ERC proposal is something that State - AID - USIA management have sought for years as well as AFSA.

EXPLANATION OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT
OF SECTION 1034(a)

The proposal would amend §1034 of the Code dealing with the non-recognition of gain on the sale or exchange of a residence to provide that the 18-month period for reinvesting the sales proceeds in a new residence will be tolled during the time an individual is employed on a permanent basis outside of the U. S. Many employers actively discourage transferred employees from buying homes abroad because of the problems dealing with home-ownership and disposal thereof. Consequently, it is very difficult for transferred employees who are sent abroad to comply with the 18-month period set forth in present §1034.
