EXCERPT FROM AD/O DIARY, Wednesday, 13 May 1959

Went over with Mr. Bagnall the FDD list of publications in order to clarify in my own mind why certain publications are Unclassified, some Official Use Only, and others Confidential. Mr. Bagnall reminded me of the time that the Director had asked that we downgrade, to Unclassified, as many FDD publications as possible in order to get them disseminated to industries and educational institutions. At that time Mr. Bagnall had prepared a list which was approved by the DD/I. Subsequently, OTS declined quite a few of these publications on the basis that they were neither scientific nor technical. However, they have remained Unclassified. Mr. Bagnall pointed out that the advantage of maintaining an Official Use Only classification on most of FDD's publications is that it keeps CIA publications and dissemination problems within bounds. Mr. Bagnall pointed out that the publications on the USSR, EE and FE military subjects were classified Confidential at the request of G-2. Another publication is classified Confidential because of DD/P source protection.
