DEVELOPMENTS IN VORONTSOV SPY CASE CITED

Hamburg DPA in German 1602 GMT 22 May 69 L (FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY)

ILLEGIB

[Text] Bonn/Cologne--The Soviet Embassy in the Federal Republic today rejected press reports according to which Ambassador Tsarapkin had started criminal proceedings against the Cologne police in connection with the death of embassy counsellor Vorontsov. At the same time the Cologne prosecutors office confirmed that no statement of criminal proceedings by Tsarapkin had been received by it or the head of police.

After the dath of Vorontsov in a car accident on 25 February, charges of espionage had been made against him. A spokesman of the Soviet Embassy today described as "lies" reports that Tsarapkin had accused the German police of murder by arguing that Vorontsov would have had a chance to survive if, despite the fact that death had been established, the doctor had immediately sent him to a hospital. The Federal Government, the spokesman said, had placed at the disposal of the embassy all available results of the investigation.

The prosecutors office in Cologne has stated that investigations had "not yielded any adequate indication of a punishable behavior of the Cologne police or other persons active after the accident." Hence, there was no need for opening official investigations.

[Text] Helsinki, May 23, TASS--President Urho K. Kekkonen of Finland said that a major and useful exchange of opinion on all topical problems had been held between Aleksey Kosygin and him during their meeting in Leningrad. He was speaking over the Finnish television yesterday.

Replying to questions asked by Finnish correspondents who had been present during his speech, Kekkonen said that Finland was going to continue the policy of neutrality, which spelt, above all, the maintenance of good relations with the Soviet Union and all-round development of trade with it.

When asked how the security of Northern Europe could be guaranteed, Kekkonen replied that this problem was most closely linked with the strengthening of European security, as a whole. "A general European conference on security problems," he emphasized, "could also facilitate a solution to the problem of the security of Northern Europe."
