Dear [Redacted]

STAT

It gives me great pleasure to inform you that the Board of Editors of Studies in Intelligence has voted you the Sherman Kent Award for 1979 in recognition of the outstanding contribution to the literature of intelligence made by your article "Measuring the Military Balance in Western Europe" in the Winter issue.

[Redacted] will be sending you the prize check of $500 (which is tax-free) and will advise you about the ceremony at which the award certificates will be presented. A list of the prize-winners will appear in the Summer issue.

STAT

The Editors join me in extending our congratulations and thanks for a very fine piece of work.

Sincerely,
