5. [redacted] LIAISON Called Loch Johnson, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and arranged for him to review articles from Studies in Intelligence which he had requested. Regarding his meeting with [redacted] Chief, Covert Action Staff, DDO, regarding [redacted] I told Johnson that [redacted] was tied up in the preparation of a paper for Representative Les Aspin (D., Wis.) on the subject which the Director would review. In light of the Director's involvement, [redacted] asked that the meeting be postponed until the Director had reviewed the paper. Johnson agreed to the delay but said in preparation for the Director's appearance before the Subcommittee on Oversight, Johnson needed a number of discussions with [redacted] in order to thoroughly understand the [redacted] programs. He wants these as soon as they can be arranged. Specifically, he said Congressman Aspin wants about three examples of successful [redacted] programs.

6. [redacted] LIAISON Received a call from Paula Belknap, on the House International Relations Committee staff. Belknap said by tomorrow morning she needs statistics on the percent of specific minerals used in the U.S. which were imported. I took the list of minerals but cautioned Belknap that I was not sure if CIA would maintain these statistics. After checking with [redacted] office, CSS/NFA I called the Department of Commerce and spoke with Brian Hessler in their Legislative Department. He agreed they could undertake this request and said he would call Belknap. I called her to inform her what had transpired and she was quite agreeable.

7. [redacted] LEGISLATION Called Bob Carlstrom, OMB, to ask him about several letters which we have pending. He said that the FOIA people were studying our letter to Representative Samuel Devine (R., Ohio) about amending the Freedom of Information Act, and he would get back to us as soon as this was completed. He said he hoped to have the letter on S. 1974, the Regulatory Flexibility Act, cleared by Friday, 13 January. Regarding the letters on S. 1720 and S. 1721, bills to amend the Administrative Procedure Act, he said he was not sure when they would be cleared because he was awaiting comments from DOD. He had contacted the Senate Judiciary Committee, and they had no problem with the delay. They merely wanted to be sure the Executive Branch was working on it. Mr. Carlstrom also extended the deadline for our comments on H.R. 10076, the Omnibus Right to Privacy Act, until 20 January and said he did not expect to be clearing any letters on that bill to the Committee for the foreseeable future.
