4. (Confidential - LLM) LIAISON Had several conversations during the day with Mike Epstein and Bill Miller, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, concerning the recent KCIA material provided to the Committee. Epstein indicated that it would be a staff recommendation to the Committee to issue a public interim report on their KCIA findings in about a month or so.

22. [redacted] LIAISON Accompanied Stan Taylor, Catherine Essoyan, Abram Shulsky and Angelo Codevilla, all of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, to a briefing by LA Division/DDO representatives, headed by [redacted] LA Division Chief, on LA Division anti-terrorist activities. Eight other LA Division personnel participated, giving summaries of terrorist problems in particular countries in the region. [redacted] O/SA/DO/O, also sat in. Later Taylor informed me that this was an excellent briefing and that the team working on the study of Government anti-terrorist programs had now received all the overall briefings they needed and were ready to go to work on individual assignments in this field.

23. [redacted] LIAISON Reported to Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, that the SALT study I had told him was sent down last week was not in fact as it was still being printed, but that it should be to the Committee this week. I said that the matrix, which Miller had specifically asked about, was included. This was satisfactory to Miller. I asked Miller if he needed anything
