13. [redacted] LIAISON Called Mike Epstein, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his inquiry about whether DDO employee [redacted] had talked to the Inspector General about reporting on [redacted] Epstein gave me more specifics on what [redacted] had said about his meeting with the IG. Epstein said he would personally be in favor of this and would recommend it to Senator Adlai Stevenson (D., Ill.).

[redacted] LIAISON Called Roy Werner, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, to get a better grip on the purpose underlying his request for a briefing on Vietnam and confirmed that it will take place on Wednesday, 14 June at 1400 hours in Room 4304 of the Dirksen Senate Office Building. 23. [redacted] LIAISON Called Susan Pitts, in the office of Senator Alan Cranston (D., Calif.), and advised her that due to the security level of the material to be discussed at the luncheon tomorrow, Mr. Allyn Kreps, Legislative Aide to the Senator, would not be able to attend because he lacks clearances. She said she previously worked on the Church Committee and had compartmented clearances. She said the Senator had talked to the Director and had been advised that those clearances could be reinstated if needed. She suggested that we reinstate her clearances and she would attend. I told her I would check on this but we do have a rule about personal staffers. She said she understood but felt that the conversation between the Senator and the Director would take care of this.

Later in the day, after checking with [redacted] O/DCI, I called Ms. Pitts back and advised her that we would not be able to reinstate her clearances, that since she is a personal staffer she would not be eligible for the clearances and therefore could not attend the luncheon if they wanted the discussions to be meaningful. She said she understood completely and that Larry Smith, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, could handle the staff work involved. She seemed very pleasant about the whole matter.
