5. (Unclassified - JMS) LIAISON At  <sup>GAO</sup> OLC, request, STAT
I returned Gerald Hamilton's, House Select Committee on Assassinations staff, call. Hamilton wanted to know if the Martin Luther King, Jr. material was ready for review yet. I advised him that some of the material was ready for review.

6. (Unclassified - RSG) LIAISON Michael Glennon and John Ritch, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, visited C&R Staff and reviewed item number two of the 19 December request. I suggested that we provide to the FBI, directly, our list of FBI documents so that the FBI could then provide said documents.

7. (Unclassified - GMC) ADMINISTRATIVE - DELIVERIES
Sent to Molly Williamson, Research Director, House Select Committee on Population, a copy of OPR-401 entitled "Potential Implications of Trends in World Population, Food Production, and Climate." I attached a note reminding Williamson that this study has never constituted an official Agency position.

8. (Unclassified - MLG) LIAISON Per  request forwarded STAT
✓ to Mr. Joseph DiGiorgio, GAO, unclassified information on international terrorist incidents.

9. (Unclassified - MLG) LIAISON Per Annette Swider's request forwarded to Walter Sheridan, of the Senate Human Resources Subcommittee on Health and Scientific Research staff, and Elliot Maxwell, of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, the 9th release of the BLUEBIRD/ARTICHOKE material which is to be released to the public under FOIA on 22 February.

10. (Unclassified - MG) LIAISON Per his request to  STAT
 OLC, of last week, I called Tony Long, in the office of Senator John C. Culver (D., Iowa), and told him that I had a list of unclassified CIA publications which I would forward to him today.

11. (Unclassified - MG) CONSTITUENT Received a call from Mary Cochran, in the office of Senator Frank Church (D., Idaho), who said they had a constituent who wanted a copy of the publication "World Steel Market Continued Trouble Ahead." I told her the document could be obtained for the constituent through the DOCEX Project at the Library of Congress.

16. [redacted] LIAISON Called Chuck Snodgrass, on the staff of the House Appropriations Committee, to say the DDCI could not make lunch on the 23rd of February, and suggested the 27th or March 1. Snodgrass said they were both bad. We left it that we would try to name some more dates open on Mr. Carlucci's calendar. Snodgrass said that he and Ralph Preston, of the Committee, are eager to meet the DDCI and would be willing to meet him at the Capitol instead of for lunch.

7. (Unclassified - RJK) LIAISON In response to a request from Don Sanders, of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, late yesterday afternoon [redacted] OS, conducted a physical security review of Room 17 in the basement of the Russell Senate Office Building. Sanders, working under the direction of the Chairman of the Senate Select Committee on Ethics, had to move from his previous quarters in S-405, The Capitol. Sanders called later in the day to request that a courier stop by Room 17 on Monday to pick up a letter from him relating to the security review situation.

9. (Unclassified - RJK) LIAISON Called Karen Lissakers, Staff Director, of the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on Foreign Economic Policy, to respond to a letter from Chairman Frank Church (D., Idaho) requesting a copy of the new analysis by the Agency on Saudi oil policy. This analysis was reported in a Washington Post article on 5 February. Having consulted with [redacted] NFAC/CSS, and with [redacted] I advised her that the Post article was an error and that there was no new Agency analysis. I told her that a study is being done and when it is completed the Agency would be able to make the information available to the Committee. She readily accepted this explanation and asked whether she could receive a personal briefing on the Saudi oil situation in general. [redacted] indicated that such a briefing could be provided and arrangements will be made with Ms. Lissakers for an early briefing.
