The Honorable Edward P. Boland
Chairman, Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Over the past week or so there have been a number of articles in the press concerning intelligence. I would like to ensure that you and your Committee have the full story on these where they may have given some incorrect impressions. Rather than wait for an opportunity to brief your Committee in person, I thought I would take this opportunity to provide you some brief written comments. 25X1

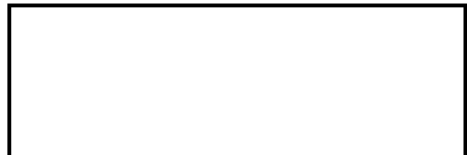

25X1 Another story concerned our inability to act with respect to assisting [redacted] The facts here are that we were being very scrupulous in ensuring that any actions we took were fully 25X1 in accord with the Presidential findings with respect to combating international terrorism. There was a fine line to be drawn as to [redacted] to be properly classed as "international" terrorists. The general ruling was that they are not.
Nonetheless, there was no action which the Italian government requested, or which we felt we could usefully offer to them, which was not taken by our government. At the time of Mr. Moro's death, however, we were still debating a proposed new Presidential finding for the purpose of ensuring that we did not have our hands tied if some new request or new opportunity developed. We would not want to have had any delay if there had been some way in which we could have assisted the Italians in saving Mr. Moro's life.

Hope this will help with any inquiries you may receive. MORI/CDF

Yours sincerely,

25X1

Stansfield Turner
