STAT 12. (Unclassified - RJK) LIAISON [redacted] Chief, SALT Support Staff/NFAC, briefed cleared members of the House International Relations Committee staff, on U.S. verification capabilities. Present from the Committee staff were George Berdes, Alison Brenner, William Fite, Donald Fortier, Forrest Frank, Ivo Spalatin, and Mike Van Dusen. STAT Before [redacted] completed his presentation, it was necessary to STAT depart to allow briefers from ACDA to make their presentation. Spalatin said he would like [redacted] to return and would call us to set up a date.

13. (Unclassified - RJK) LIAISON Called Gail Wynn, House International Relations Subcommittee on Inter-American Affairs, and, in her absence, left word that we were returning the original of the Subcommittee's 12 April testimony to her.

✓ 14. (Unclassified - RJK) LIAISON Called Jason Cooke, on the staff of Representative Gus Yatron (D., Pa.), to answer some questions which he had raised yesterday. I told him that the Soviets were providing nearly 100 percent of Cuba's support and certainly this would cover any increased costs the Cubans incurred as a result of their increased activity in Africa. I mentioned that our FBIS people would be checking Greek press items to see whether there has been any reaction to the Congressman's statements on the Greek-Turkey situation. I also told him that a paper on migration from the Caribbean was incomplete but that we would make a note of his interest and provide him with a copy when it was available.

40. [REDACTED] ADMINISTRATIVE DELIVERIES

Delivered to Doris Conner, Senate Armed Services Committee, for Frank Sullivan, Committee Staff Director, a copy of a 1963 memorandum from the DCI to the President regarding the number of Soviet troops in Cuba. I told Conner the paper was requested under Executive Order 11652 declassification procedures, and that we were willing to release it but since it mentioned the Committee we wanted Sullivan's advice on the question. Sullivan later called me expressing concern about release of the document and generally about the Agency releasing so much information. He said he would not have a chance to decide on release of the document now as he was involved all day long in mark up sessions but did not want it released until he had the opportunity to think about it. I agreed to hold it.

41. [REDACTED] LIAISON Met with Ed Greissing, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, who said the House Select Committee on Assassinations had requested to see the transcript of Church Committee testimony by [REDACTED] and that under Committee procedures they wanted to get [REDACTED] approval first. I agreed to [REDACTED] notified.

42. [REDACTED] LIAISON Met with Earl Eisenhower, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, who indicated one of the recommendations coming out of the Committee's study of the Frank Snapp case would be there should be a mechanism to conduct post mortem reviews of major Agency programs, such as involvement in South Vietnam. Eisenhower requested that the Agency get to the Committee as soon as possible our report on the Edward J. Epstein book Legend. He also indicated that the "dry run" for counterintelligence briefing had gone very well but the question remained who would give the briefing. I said I would look into this for him.

43. [REDACTED] ADMINISTRATIVE DELIVERIES

Delivered to Audrey Hatry, Clerk, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, a letter from Robert Gambino, D/OS, regarding clearances for Rosemary C. Tascione and Alexandra Tomalonis, for Senator Birch Bayh (D., Ind.), Committee Chairman; and a memorandum from [REDACTED] CSS/NFAC, regarding Middle East reporting; Headquarters Instruction [REDACTED] and a schedule for the "Perspectives for New Supergrades" course all for Bill Miller, Committee Staff Director.

38. [Redacted] LIAISON Met with Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, and covered several points. I informed Miller that we wanted to insure the only unclassified mention of a particular sensitive Agency facility [Redacted] we wanted no mention on unsecure channels of its location. Miller agreed to this and immediately dictated a memorandum for the staff covering these points. I asked Miller for his view of Committee plans regarding the book Legend, specifically, whether there was any chance the Committee would [Redacted] Miller said he could not imagine the Committee would [Redacted] as they were in no position to second guess Agency determinations. The Committee's interest is the nature of the dispute and its implications for security and counterintelligence. I asked Miller for background on the request to examine the past year's NIEs. Miller repeated the message in the Committee's letter that they were in support of Dr. Bowie's efforts to improve the estimative process. He stated there was no attempt to do a quality of intelligence study on the NIEs but that the Committee wanted to get a sense of the volume of the reports, and their topics and scope. He described it as a "volumetric" study.

Miller referred me back to Levine who gave me the paper I requested. I told Miller there is some extra time in his scheduled 2 May tour [Redacted] welcome to [Redacted]

[Redacted] He agreed. I also discussed with Miller his topic for his address to perspectives for new supergrades course. Finally, I pushed Miller for a Committee response on protecting Congressional documents from FOIA requests. I told Miller the court case would be up soon and without Committee support our ability to protect the documents in questions would be in jeopardy.

39. [Redacted] LIAISON Met with Stan Taylor, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and informed him that CIA employment applicant [Redacted] rejected by letter of 28 March. I informed him the Agency had no evidence of Soviet support for the Red Brigades as alleged in a recent New York Times column by James Reston. He was surprised at this as he stated that other agencies had told him that there was such evidence. Taylor also said he was still expecting from the DDO information on what the Agency needs to be able to do in countering international terrorism that we are now precluded from doing.
