✓ 11. [redacted] LIAISON Called Earl Eisenhower, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, to report that the counterintelligence briefing prepared for the Committee would be presented to John McMahon, DDO, on Monday, 1 May, and the DCI later that week. I told Eisenhower a decision on who would present the briefing to the Committee would not be made until after the DCI session. Regarding the request of [redacted] former Agency employee, to the Committee for assistance in pursuing his grievances with the Agency, I informed Eisenhower that there was no incident in [redacted] career other than the one Eisenhower was aware of which had affected [redacted] career progression. Eisenhower said it would be helpful to him and other members of the Committee to have a chart showing the incumbents in the senior Agency positions over the past 20 years or so. I agreed to get this for him.

✓ 14. [redacted] LIAISON Called Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, and got his home address and directions to it. [redacted]. I also discussed with Miller Agency concerns regarding the study requested in the Committee's authorization report on clandestine collection. Miller indicated he was scheduled to meet with Mr. Carlucci on 3 May and expected the subject to come up at that time. Miller said the Committee would like to have one copy of the Secret-Nofofn version of the DCI's annual report for 1977. Miller also said he had not yet been contacted by [redacted] regarding the Agency's involvement with [redacted].

6. [REDACTED] HEARING Accompanied [REDACTED] 25X1

IC Staff, to a meeting with Representative Charles Rose (D., N. Car.), Tom Latimer, Staff Director, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, and Dick Giza, of the Committee staff, to discuss upcoming Automatic Data Processing (ADP) hearings. Mr. Rose reaffirmed what Giza had said earlier that these hearings were intended to elicit a general briefing on what ADP systems the Community has, and an understanding on the ADP needs of the Community and interagency coordination of ADP matters. [REDACTED] and Mr. Rose quickly established rapport based on their work in ADP applications to Governmental organizations. Neither is a technical expert by training.
