ASCI

25X1 1. [REDACTED] EMPLOYMENT REQUEST Received a call from Pat Lott, in the office of Representative Frederick W. Richmond (D., N.Y.), requesting a professional application be sent to her for a constituent. OLC Registry was advised.

25X1 2. [REDACTED] LIAISON Received a call from Mrs. Fulton, Librarian, Congressional Budget Office, requesting that a D. Morganstern, Natural Resources Division, CBO, be put on our mailing list to receive the "International Energy Biweekly Statistical Review." I have called NFAC/CSS and am waiting approval.

25X1 3. [REDACTED] LIAISON Duane Andrews, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence staff, called to say Representative Bill D. Burlison (D., Mo.) is available on 24 November 1978 for briefings on his trip to Central America and to meet with the Director. Andrews asked us to confirm the date and tell them what the schedule would be.

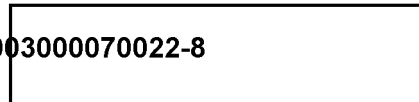

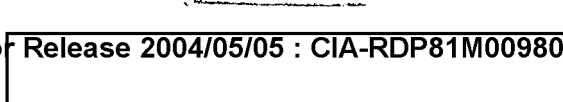

25X1 4. [REDACTED] BRIEFING Called Bill Miles, Administrative Assistant to Representative William V. Alexander (D., Ark.), to confirm the China briefing on Tuesday, 7 November.

25X1 5. [REDACTED] BRIEFING Dan Childs, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, called to ask that we provide a briefing for him and Bill Miller, Staff Director, on the two most recent Presidential Findings. He would like the briefing at 3:00 p.m. on Wednesday, 8 November, in S-407 of the Capitol. Arrangements are being made with the Operations Directorate and the Comptroller.

25X1 6. [REDACTED] LIAISON Per his request of today, sent via courier to Winslow Wheeler, in the office of Senator Jacob K. Javits (R., N.Y.), a copy of "The Soviet Economy in 1976-77 and Outlook for 1978."
