

CONFIDENTIAL

9 December 1940, "Nachrichten fur Aussenhandel," No. 289

It is reported that oil has been found near Murako Srediste at a depth of 180 meters. It contains 33 percent of gasoline which can be used as fuel without further refining. The yield is estimated at about five tons per day.

24 July 1942, "Chemische Industrie," No. 29/30

The "Serbian Shell Corporation" is being founded in Belgrade with a capital of five million dinars. It will be concerned with processing petroleum.

18 September 1942, "Chemische Industrie," No. 37/38

A new company, "Semondrif Petroleum Refinery, Inc.," with a capital of 20 million dinars, has been founded in Belgrade. Its factory installations are in Semendria. The company is concerned with the import, processing, and sale of petroleum and petroleum products.

CONFIDENTIAL