The State Explosives Factory in Obilicevo was given permission to sell other produced in its plants.

RUMANIA

15 November 1939, "Der Neue Tag," Prague, No 220

Rumania is taking steps to eliminate foreign influence in the armaments industry. One of the principal firms to be affected by a new law restricting foreign influence will be the English armaments plant of Armstrong, Vickers, and Company, which holds controlling interests in the Rumanian armaments industry, especially the Reita combine.
