

BLONDIOT AGITATORA. No 18, June 1951*"Subjects, plans, and literature for chats during July 1951."*I. We will expand socialist competition for pre-term fulfillment of the 1951 plan.

1. Pre-term fulfillment of the 1951 plan -- a most important task of the workers of Moscow industry.
2. Raising the productivity of labor and meeting progressive norms by every working man and woman -- decisive conditions for pre-term fulfillment of the plan.
3. The struggle for improvement of quality of production and for lowering production costs -- most important tasks of industrial workers.
4. Broad utilization of the experience of production innovators, development of socialist competition, and collective Stakhanovite labor -- the way to pre-term fulfillment of the plan.
5. How the 1951 plan is being fulfilled in our friends' shop and enterprise.

Literature

- "Resolution of the 9th Moscow City Party Conference Concerning the Report of the Moscow City Committee of the CPSU on the 1st 5-Year Plan," Pravda, 7 April 1951.
- "An Important Reserve for the Growth of Labor Productivity," Pravda, 15 June 1951.
- "Socialist Competition for Pre-term Fulfillment of the Yearly Plan," Izvestiya, 10 June 1951.

II. The struggle for economy -- a most important task of the workers:

1. A "regime of economy" -- an important source of socialist accumulation in excess of plan.
2. Strictest economy of raw materials, materials, fuel, and electric power -- the duty of all workers.
3. Full utilization of machinery and equipment, raising the productivity of labor, and improving quality of production -- necessary conditions for achieving a "regime of economy."
4. Maintenance of machine tools, equipment, and instruments and the struggle against waste and thriftlessness -- the duty of every working man and woman.
5. We will expand competition for achieving economy of raw materials, materials, and electric power and for exceeding planned socialist accumulation.

Literature

- V. I. Lenin, "A Great Beginning," Collected Works, 4th edition, XXX - 394.
- I. V. Stalin, "On the Economic Position of the Soviet Union and the Policy of the Party," Collected Works, VIII - 140.
- "A Regime of Economy -- the Socialist Method of Management," Izvestiya, 9 June 1951.
- "Save Metal!" Moskovskaya Pravda, 8 June 1951.

III. Completely utilize machinery in constructions and courageously introduce the experience of innovators.

1. Concern of the party and government for mechanization of construction work, for facilitating the work of construction workers.
2. Mastering the technique of rapid construction, building rapidly and continually at low cost — an affair of honor for Moscow construction workers.
3. Active participation in socialist competition by construction workers, according to trades — the duty of Moscow construction workers.
4. How we carry out the obligations pledged in a letter to Comrade Stalin.

Literature

"Build Rapidly Continually, and at Low Costs!" Pravda, 19 June 1951
 "Militant Tasks of Builders," Moskovskaya Pravda, 10 June 1951.

IV. We will gather the harvest in good time and without losses, we will deliver State supplies before the due date.

1. Gathering the harvest in the shortest possible time, pre-term delivery of State supplies — a most important economic-political task.
2. Full utilization of techniques, broad application of the work experience of leading workers in agricultural production, organization of continual around-the-clock work — decisive conditions for gathering the harvest in the shortest possible time.
3. We will have threshing floors, drying rooms, and granaries ready in good time.
4. The struggle against losses and for careful guarding of the harvest — the vital business of kolkhoz workers and workers of MTSs and sovkhoses.
5. How our kolkhos, sovkhos, or MTS is preparing for gathering the harvest and making deliveries of agricultural products to the State.

Literature

"For Model Work by the MTS!" Pravda, 14 June 1951.
 "Timely Preparation for Deliveries and Reception of the Grain from the New Harvest," Sotsialisticheskoye Zemelodeliye, 5 June 1951.

V. Full utilization of techniques in gathering the harvest — an important task for MTS workers.

1. Full and correct utilization of techniques in gathering the harvest — decisive conditions for carrying out field work in the best agrotechnical time (sic) and with excellent quality. (progressive)
2. Introduction of the/leading experience of MTS machine operators, efficient and uninterrupted work day and night by hourly schedules — the basis for successful gathering of the harvest.
3. Rendering the kolkhozniks all sorts of aid in mechanization of laborious work on threshing floors -- the obligation of MTS workers.

4. We will expand socialist competition of field brigades with machine operators for gathering the harvest in the shortest possible time and without losses, for economy of fuel and for socialist maintenance of technical equipment.

Literature

"For Model Work by the MTS!" Pravda, 14 June 1951.

"For New Successes of Rural Machine Operators," Izvestiya, 7 June 1951.

VI. USSR Airforce Day -- a national holiday.

1. USSR Air Force Day -- a day for review of the successes and achievements of Stalinist aviation.
2. Our country -- the Motherland of aviation.
3. The USSR Air Force -- the child of the Stalinist Five Year Plans.
4. The significance of aviation in the development of the national economy and in building up the defensive might of the USSR.
5. Strengthening the fighting strength of aviation -- the patriotic duty of the Soviet people.

Literature

<sup>A. Ordina</sup> "USSR Air Force Day," Blotnot Agitatora, No 17, 1951

VII. Navy Day in the USSR -- national holiday.

1. The USSR -- a great naval power.
2. The constant concern of the party, the Soviet government, and Comrade Stalin for the growth of the naval might of our country.
3. The Navy -- the faithful guard of the security of the borders of our great Motherland.
4. Active participation in DOSFLOT -- a sacred obligation of the Soviet people.

VIII. To greet All-Union Railroad Worker's Day with new production successes is the patriotic duty of Soviet railroad workers.

1. The concern of the party, the government, and Comrade Stalin for the railroad workers.
2. Assure movement of trains on schedule and excellent service for passengers -- an obligation of all workers of railroad transport.
3. Exceed the yearly plan for freight turnover, assure the safety of freight, and lower costs of transport -- militant tasks of railroad workers.
4. Careful preparation for fall and winter transport -- a prerequisite for the largest volume of transport.
5. We will disseminate more widely the experience of locomotive engineers who run their trains more than 500 kilometers in one day (machinist-pyatsotnik), dispatcher-innovators, and outstanding workers of railway transport.

6. Greet All-Union Railroad Worker's Day with new production successes.

Literature -- "For a New ~~Stage~~ of Railway Transport," Izvestiya, 13 June 1951.

IX. Fully utilize the summer season for development of mass physical culture and sport.

1. Development of Soviet physical culture and sport -- one of the important methods of Communist training of workers, of improving their health, and of preparing them for work and defense of the socialist Motherland.
2. Meeting the norms for GTO badges, active participation in competition in all kinds of sports -- the duty of Soviet youth.
3. Fully utilize the summer season for development of physical culture and sport, replenish the ranks of sportsmen with new champions and record holders of the USSR -- an important task of youth.
4. We will greet Physical Culturist Day with new achievements in the development of mass physical culture and sport.

Literature

"Multiply the Successes of the Soviet Physical Culture Movement," Izvestiya, 26 May 1951.
 "Broaden the Scale of the Mass Physical Cultural Movement in the Village," Komsomol'skaya Pravda, 25 June 1951.

X. The Struggle of the peoples of ~~the~~ world for peace.

1. The talk of Comrade Stalin with a Pravda newspaper correspondent -- a militant program of struggle for the peoples for a long and lasting peace.
2. The all-national movement of the partisans of peace -- a mighty modern movement.
3. The heroic struggle of the Korean people, the struggle against the remilitarization of Western Germany, the growth of national-liberation movements in colonial and dependent countries.
4. The strengthening and growth of the camp of democracy and socialism headed by the Soviet Union -- a guarantee of the victory of the peoples in the struggle for peace in the whole world.
5. By new successes of Communist construction we shall strengthen peace in all the world.

Literature

I. V. Stalin, "Talk with a Pravda Correspondent," Gospolitizdat, 1951.
 "Note of the Government of the USSR to the Government of the USA on a Peace Treaty with Japan," Pravda, 11 June 1951.
 "The Inexorable Will of the Peoples for Peace," Pravda, 8 June 1951.
 "The Struggle for Peace -- a Vital Affair of the Peoples," Pravda, 17 June 1951.
 "The Decisive Role of the Popular Masses in Defense of Peace," Hal'shevik, No 10, 1951.
 "An Important Contribution to Peace in Europe," Izvestiya, 8 June, 1951.

Partisan of Peace (Chart and Moscow City Committee of the USSR)