

STAT

Contents and Monthly Guide from BLOKNOT AGITATOREA

Sep 51 - Oct 51

STAT

RESTRICTED

STEWART REORGANIZATION

BLOKNOT AGITATORA, No. 25, September 1951

Table of Contents

Material for Chats

"The Great Soviet People in the Struggle for Peace"

To be Used in Chats

"From Statements of V. I. Lenin ~~and I. V. Stalin~~ on Peace and the Struggle for Peace"

The Great Construction Projects of Communism

P. Markov, "The Main Turkmen Canal."

From the Experience of Agitation Work

M. Ikonnikov (Deputy Secretary of the party committee of the construction of the Moscow State University),
"For Collective Stakhanovite Labor on the Construction."

Experience of Leading Workers

M. Volkev (Stakhanovite turner of the Electrical Machinery Plant of the Main Administration of Laboratory Instruments),
"What the Continuous Operation Method Can Do."

For Agricultural Topics

N. Ardab'yev, "We Shall Prepare Adequate ~~and~~ Warm Winter Shelter for Communal Livestock."

For International Topics

K. Tyabin, "Second Anniversary of the Chinese People's Republic."

New Books

RESTRICTED

RESTRICTED

BLOKNOT AGITATORA, No. 26, September, 1951

Table of Contents

Material for Reports and Chats

V. Korolev (mason, deputy to the Supreme Soviet RSFSR),
"The Soviet Union -- Standard-Bearer of Peace,"
V. Krest'yaninov (Chairman, Moscow City Council of Trade Unions), "For a Fresh Upsurge of Socialist Competition."

For Agricultural Topics

F. Velikanov, "Harvest Potatoes and Vegetables On Time and Without Loss."

Answers to Agitators' Questions

Ya. Prudkin (mining engineer), "Cycle Work Schedule in Coal Mines."

As an Aid to the Agitator

G. Gladikh, "How to Conduct Chats."

Reference Section

RESTRICTED

RESTRICTED

BLOCKNOT AGITATOR, No. 27, September 1951Table of ContentsMaterial for Reports and Chats

"We Shall Greet in a Fitting Manner the 34th Anniversary of the Great October Socialist Revolution"
G. Leonov, "For a Further Lowering of Production Costs in Each Operation."

Great Construction Projects of Communism

M. Loyter, "Kakhovka Hydroelectric Power Center, and Southern Ukrainian and Northern Crimean Canals."

To Be Used in Chats

"Enormous Profits of Monopolies and Poverty of Workers in Capitalist Countries"

As an Aid to the Agitator

"Subjects, Plans, and Literature for Chats for October 1951"

Reference Sectionfor Chats

"Subjects, Plans and Literature for October 1951"

- I. V. I. Lenin and I. V. Stalin -- inspirers and organizers of the Great October Socialist Revolution.
1. V. I. Lenin and I. V. Stalin -- organizers and leaders of the ~~Revolutionary~~ Bolshevik Party.
 2. Leading role of the Bolshevik Party and its leaders, V. I. Lenin and I. V. Stalin, in the preparation and conduct of the Great October Socialist Revolution.
 3. V. I. Lenin and I. V. Stalin -- creators of the first soviet socialist state in the world.
 4. Outstanding success of the Soviet people under the leadership of Comrade Stalin in constructing communism in our country.
 5. World-wide historical importance of the Great October Socialist Revolution.

Literature

Short Course of the History of the VKP(b), Chapter VII, Section 6, and "Brief Conclusions," pp. 195-204, 213-214.

Short Sketch of the Life and Activity of Vladimir Il'ich Lenin, Chap. IX, Gospolitizdat, 1945, pp. 171-195.

RESTRICTED

RESTRICTED

Short Biography of Iosif Vissarionovich Stalin, 2nd ed., with amendments and additions, Chap. V, Moscow,
Gospolitizdat, 1950, pp. 59-69.

The Great Leader and Teacher of the Communist Party and the Soviet People; On the Seventieth Anniversary of the Birth of I. V. Stalin, (Propaganda and Agitation Section of the TsK VKP(b)), Marx-Engels-Lenin Institute under the TsK VKP(b), Moscow, 1949,
pp. 1-9.

Report of the State Planning Committee USSR and the Central Statistical Administration USSR; On the Success of the Fulfillment of the Fourth (First Post-War) Five-Year Plan of the USSR, 1946-1950,
Gospolitizdat, 1951, 21 pp.

The Great Construction Projects of the Stalin Epoch,
2nd ed., Gospolitizdat, pp. 21-44.

II. I. V. Stalin -- great standard-bearer of peace.

1. With the name of ~~Stik~~ Stalin all progressive mankind and all freedom-loving, democratic peoples unite their hopes for a prolonged, lasting peace and security for nations.
2. Lenin and Stalin -- creators and leaders of the foreign policy of the Soviet Socialist state.
3. Decree on peace -- the first act of the foreign policy of the Soviet Government.
4. Struggle of the Soviet Union for a lasting peace and security for nations in the period of the Great Patriotic War and in the post-war period.
5. I. V. Stalin on the tasks confronting the various peoples in the struggle against warmongers.
6. The strengthening of the power of the Soviet Government -- the foundation of the success of Stalinist foreign policy in the struggle for peace.

Literature

I. V. Stalin, "Speech to the Pre-election Gathering of Electors of the Stalin Election District of the City of Moscow on 9 February 1946," Gospolitizdat, 1946, pp. 5-12.

I. V. Stalin, "To the President of the German Democratic Republic, Mr. Wilhelm Pieck; To the Prime Minister of the Government of the German Democratic Republic, Mr. Otto Grotewohl," Bol'shevik, 1949, No. 19, pp. 1-2.

- 4 -

RESTRICTED

RESTRICTED

I. V. Stalin, "Chat with a 'Pravda' Correspondent,"
Gospolitizdat, 1951.

I. V. Stalin, "To the Chairman of the Central People's Government of the Chinese People's Republic Comrade
~~Mao Tse-tung~~ Mao Tse-tung," Pravda, 3 September 1951.

~~"To Comrade Stalin — the Great Leader and Teacher, ~~and~~ the Continuer of the ~~Immortal~~ Immortal Deeds of Lenin," (TsK VKP(b), Council of Ministers USSR). Bol'shevik, 1949, No 24, pp 3-7.~~

The Great Leader and Teacher of the Communist Party and the Soviet People: On the Seventieth Anniversary of the Birth of I. V. Stalin, Section IV (Propaganda and Agitation Section of the TsK VKP(b), Marx-Engels-Lenin Institute under the TsK VKP(b), Moscow, 1949, pp 21-26.

"To Comrade I. V. Stalin: From the Second All-Union Conference of Peace Partisans," Pravda, 19 October 1950.

III. The Successful Collection of Signatures to the ~~Apparatus~~ World Peace Council Appeal — a New Example of the Firm Determination of the Soviet People to Uphold the Cause of Peace.

1. Comrade Stalin on the tasks of the people in the struggle to avert war and ~~maintain~~ preserve peace.
2. Hundreds of millions of signatures to the World Peace Council Appeal abroad — a powerful blow at the aggressive plans of the warmongers.
3. The decision of the plenum of the Soviet Committee for the Defense of Peace on collecting signatures within the USSR to the World Peace Council Appeal.
4. The successful collection of signatures to the World Peace Council Appeal within the USSR — a clear demonstration of the unanimity with which the Soviet people support Stalin's peaceful foreign policy.
5. We will back up our signatures to the Peace Pact by fulfilling and overfulfilling production plans.

Literature

I. V. Stalin, "Chat with a 'Pravda' Correspondent,"
Gospolitizdat, 1951.

~~Reply of the Chairman of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet USSR N. M. Shvernik to the President of the U.S. Mr. Truman; Resolution of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet USSR," Pravda, 8 August 1951.~~

"Reply of the Chairman of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet USSR N. M. Shvernik to the President of the
U.S. Mr. Truman; Resolution of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet USSR," Pravda, 8 August 1951.

RESTRICTED

- " Report of the World Peace Council on the Collection of Signatures to the Appeal for the Conclusion of a Peace Pact," Pravda, 15 August 1951.
- " Report of the World Peace Council on the Conclusion of a Peace Pact," Pravda, 29 August 1951.
- " On Collecting Signatures within the USSR to the World Peace Council Appeal for the Conclusion of a Peace Pact Between the Five Great Powers; Resolution of the Plenum of the Soviet Committee for the Defense of Peace," Pravda, 29 August 1951.
- " Resolution of the Moscow Oblast Conference of Peace Partisans," Moskovskaya pravda, 7 September 1951.
- " Conference of Peace Partisans," Pravda, 6 September 1951.
- " Labor Peace Watch," Izvestiya, 11 September 1951.

IV. We Will Further Expand Socialist Competition ~~in the USSR~~ to Fulfill Production Plans Ahead of Schedule, by the 34th Anniversary of the Great October Socialist Revolution.

1. Pre-October socialist competition ~~in the USSR~~ to fulfill production plans ahead of schedule -- clear evidence of the patriotism of the Soviet people.
2. Fulfilling their promises to Comrade Stalin about fulfilling the 1951 plan ahead of schedule -- a most important task of the workers in industry and transport and building organizations of the city of Moscow and Moscow Oblast.
3. Turn out inexpensive and only high quality products and cherish the honor of the factory-plant trade mark of the capital's enterprises -- this is the duty of all the working people in Moscow industry.
4. Ensure pre-schedule and high quality fulfillment of orders for the great construction projects of Communism.
5. Strengthen the cause of peace -- tirelessly increase labor productivity, daily fulfill and overfulfill production ~~in the USSR~~ quotas.
6. We will further expand pre-October competition ~~in the USSR~~ to fulfill production plans ahead of schedule.

RESTRICTED

RESTRICTED

Literature

^{Central}
"To the Chairman of the Council of Ministers USSR, Iosif Vissarionovich Stalin, from the Workers, Engineering Technicians, and Employees of Industry and Transport Enterprises of the City of Moscow and Moscow Oblast," Pravda, 15 July 1951.

"For Pre-Schedule Fulfillment of the 1951 Plan," Pravda, 15 July 1951.

"Great Creative Labor, Decisive in the Course of History," Pravda, 31 August 1951.

"Further Extend Leading Experience," Pravda, 5 September 1951.

V. Use Techniques According to the Rules of Craftmanship!

1. The national movement for the full utilization of techniques -- clear evidence of the patriotism of the Soviet people.
2. Successes of leading workers in socialist competition in mastering ~~new techniques~~ new techniques.
3. The full utilization of techniques -- a very important source of increasing labor productivity and improving the material welfare of the ~~people~~ working people.
4. ~~Raising~~ Raising the qualifications of workers in industry, transport, and agriculture -- a necessary condition for the complete utilization of techniques.
5. In the creative comradeship of scientists and workers in industry, transport, and agriculture lies a guarantee of further technical progress.
6. We will further expand socialist competition for the utilization of techniques according to the rules of craftmanship.

Literature

I. V. Stalin, "Speech at the First All-Union Conference of Stakhanovites," Questions of Leninism, 11th edition, pp 493-506.

"Use Techniques According to the Rules of Craftmanship," Pravda, 14 September 1951.

"Use Techniques to the Limit," Bol'shevik, No 3 1951.

RESTRICTED

VI. We Will Use More Widely on Construction Projects the Leading Work Methods of Excavator Comrade Parkhomshuk.

1. The movement for exceeding the planned capacity of machines and machinery, for increasing their period of service — a new success of Soviet people in the struggle for technical progress, for high production.
2. Broad application of the leading work methods of excavator Parkhomshuk in all the construction projects of Moscow and Moscow Oblast — this is the way to shorten building time.
3. Highly productive utilization of machinery and care for instruments and materials — a necessary condition for lowering ~~production costs~~ construction costs and increasing labor productivity.
4. Close concord between the workers in science and construction, and raising the qualifications of construction workers — a guarantee of better utilization of Soviet construction techniques.
5. With honor will we fulfill the socialist obligations we have made to Comrade Stalin.

Literature

"To the Chairman of the Council of Ministers ~~of the~~ USSR Iosif Vissarionovich Stalin, from Participants in the Moscow Oblast Conference of Builders," Moskovskaya pravda, 19 August 1951.

"We will Fulfill the Plan for Apartment House and Cultural-Life Construction Ahead of Schedule! Meeting of the Aktiv of the Moscow City Organization VKP(b)," Moskovskaya pravda, 1 September 1951.

"In the Moscow Committee VKP(b). On Applying the Leading Work Methods of Excavator Comrade G. I. Parkhomshuk," Moskovskaya pravda, 12 September 1951.

Good

VII. We Will Finish the Harvest Work in Time and Will Fulfill the Plan for Delivery of Potatoes and Vegetables to the State Ahead of Schedule.

1. Gather in potatoes and vegetables in time and without loss and fulfill the state deliveries plan — a most important economic-political task of the agricultural workers of Moscow Oblast.
2. We will organize according to the plan the harvesting of vegetables, the drying of them, and their uninterrupted transport to procurement stations.

RESTRICTED

RESTRICTED

"Conference of Kolkhoz Representatives and Leading Agricultural Workers of Moscow Oblast," Moskovskaya pravda, 12 July 1951.

"An Important Economic-Political Task," Pravda, 7 September 1951.

"Communal Economy -- the Chief Strength of the Kolkhoz," Pravda, 19 September 1951.

IX. We Will Prepare Enterprises, Apartment Houses, and Cultural-Life Institutions for Winter in Good Time.

1. Model preparation of industrial enterprises and transport for winter work -- this is something of great importance to the national economy.
2. Supplying essential stores of fuel and raw materials in plants and factories -- an essential condition for the rhythmic and uninterrupted work of all enterprises in the fall and winter.
3. Use repair materials economically, use available spare materials, finish repairing apartment houses and communal institutions on time -- an important task of apartment house workers and builders.
4. Render aid to house management workers in preparing apartment houses for winter and accept socialist responsibility for apartments and dormitories -- the job of all inhabitants of Moscow and Moscow Oblast.
5. We will further expand competition for excellent preparation for winter work. (There will be a chat based on local material).

X. Master Science, Study Hard and Patiently -- the Duty of the Soviet Student.

1. The daily concern of the Party, the government, and comrade Stalin about the preparation of cadres for the Soviet intelligentsia.
2. Acquiring thorough knowledge and understanding and applying it to the building of Communism -- a most important task of the Soviet student.
3. Mastery of Marxist-Leninist science -- the duty of specialists in all branches of science.
4. Systematic independent work and a conscientious attitude toward study and industrial practice -- essential conditions for the successful mastering of knowledge.

RESTRICTED

RESTRICTED

5. Active participation in scientific student societies and circles — an important way of learning about scientific work.
6. How students in our faculty and group organize their studying.

Literature

- V. I. Lenin, "Tasks of Youth Unions," ~~Selected~~ Works, Vol 31, 4th Edition, pp 258-275.
- I. V. Stalin, "On the First All-Union Conference of Proletarian Students," Works, Vol 7, pp 85-89.
- I. V. Stalin, "Speech at the VIII Congress of the VLKSM," Section III, Works, Vol 11, pp 74-77.
- I. V. Stalin, "Speech at the Kremlin Reception of Higher School Workers," ~~From the Speeches of I. Stalin, On Lenin~~, Gospolitizdat, 1950, pp 83-86.
- "Master Science, Study Hard and Patiently!" Pravda, 1 September 1951.

XI. The Struggle of the Soviet Union Against the Rebirth of Japanese Imperialism.

1. The historical significance of the USSR's victory over Japanese imperialism.
2. The struggle of the USSR against the rebirth of Japanese imperialism and its use for aggressive purposes against the USSR, China, and the other peoples of Asia.
3. The struggle of the Soviet Union against the American so-called peace treaty with Japan — a treaty of preparation for a new war.
4. The rising of the peoples of Asia against the aggressive plans of the American-Japanese imperialists; for the acceptance of the Soviet proposals on a peace treaty with Japan.
5. Comrade Stalin on the significance of the indissoluble Soviet-Chinese friendship in ensuring peace in the Far East against all aggressors and war-mongers.

Literature

- I. V. Stalin, "Appeal to the People of 2 September 1945", I. Stalin, On the Great Patriotic War of the Soviet Union, 5th Edition, Moscow, Gospolitizdat, 1950, pp 203-206.
- I. V. Stalin, Chat with a 'Pravda' Correspondent, Gospolitizdat, 1951.

RESTRICTED

I. V. Stalin, "To the Chairman of the Central People's Government of the Chinese People's Republic Comrade Mao Tse-tung," Pravda, 3 September 1951.

"On a Peaceful Solution to the Japanese Question (First Session of the World Peace Council)," Pravda, 27 February 1951.

"Note of the Government of the USSR to the Government of the USA on the Peace Treaty with Japan," Pravda, 11 June 1951.

"On the Participation of the USSR in the Conference for a Peace Treaty with Japan," Pravda, 17 August 1951.

"Reply of the Chairman of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet USSR N. M. Shvernik to the President of the U.S. Mr. Truman; Resolution of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet USSR," Pravda, 8 August 1951.

"Press Conference with A. A. Gromyko," Pravda, 10 September 1951.

Mao Tse-tung, "To the Chairman of the ~~Ministry~~ Council of Ministers of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics Generalissimo I. V. Stalin," Pravda, 3 September 1951.

"For Ensuring Peace in the Far East," Pravda, 3 September 1951.

"Petition from the Japanese Council of the Patriotic Movement for an Overall Peace Treaty," Pravda, 5 September 1951.

"The American Plan for Subjugating the Japanese Economy," Pravda, 4 September 1951.

XII. Progress in Peaceful Construction of the German Democratic Republic -- a New Contribution to the Cause of Peace.

1. Comrade Stalin on the significance of the founding of the German Democratic Republic.
2. The successful development of the German Democratic Republic -- the result of the selfless help given it by the USSR and the correct policies of the Socialist Unity Party of Germany.
3. The German Democratic Republic's overfulfillment of plans for the development of peaceful ~~industrial~~ ~~phases~~ phases of production, and the growth of the material welfare of the ~~working~~ working people.
4. The struggle of the German people for a united, peace-loving, and democratic Germany, and against remilitarization and the rebirth of imperialism in Western Germany.

RESTRICTED

5. Friendship with the USSR and with the countries of the people's democracies -- a guarantee to further progress for the German Democratic Republic, a keystone to the strengthening of peace in Europe.

Literature

I. V. Stalin, "To the President of the German Democratic Republic Mr. Wilhelm Pieck; to the Prime Minister of the Government of the German Democratic Republic Mr. Otto Grotewohl," Bol'shevik, No 19, 1949, pp 1-2.

I. V. Stalin, "To the Central Council of the Union of Free German Youth," Pravda, 2 June 1950.

I. V. Stalin, Chat with a 'Pravda' Correspondent, Gospolitizdat, 1951.

"A Message of Greeting from German Youth to I. V. Stalin," Pravda, 14 August 1951.

"On a Peaceful Solution to the German Question (First Session of the World Peace Council)," Pravda, 27 February 1951.

"Note from the Soviet Government to the Government of France," Pravda, 12 September 1951.

"Government Statement of the Prime Minister of the German Democratic Republic Otto Grotewohl at the Session of the People's Chamber on 15 September," Pravda, 16 September 1951.

Party Cabinet of the Moscow Oblast Committee and the Moscow City Committee VKP (b).

RESTRICTED