1. When the Tunisian nationalist leaders published a statement of their cause in Cairo several days ago, they took pains to announce that the Syrian Premier, Sa'dallah al-Jabri, had expressed to the French Minister in Damascus the deep interest of the Syrian Government in the fate of the Arabs of North Africa who were still under French rule.

2. The Syrian Government officially denied this statement. However, [REDACTED] have reported that the Premier actually made the statements attributed to him by the Tunisian nationalists.
