1. The attached translations of official documents serve to illustrate the procedure involved in the return of firms to the control of the German state and provincial administrations from Soviet AG's in the Russian Zone. The attachments are part of a series of orders, numbered in sequence either from 15 to 32 or from 16 to 33, issued on 20 February 1947 by the SMA of the Province of Saxony-Anhalt. Each order refers to one firm and instructs the general director of the appropriate SAG to surrender the firm and its property to the authorized representative of the Saxony-Anhalt government.
2. Attachment I is a translation, verbatim, of Order No. 32. A similar order was used for the following firms: (Names are given as provided by source; these are not necessarily identical with pre-occupation names of these firms.)

ATTACHMENT I

Order of the Chief of the Administration of the SMA of the Province of Saxony-Anhalt, No. 32, 20 February 1947, Halle

Subject: Transfer of the potash mine Klein-Schierstedt in Wirsleben from the SAG for Potash Fertilizers to the Government of the Province of Saxony-Anhalt.

In order to carry out the order of the Supreme Chief of the SMAD and Supreme Commander of the Group of Soviet Armies of Occupation in Germany, dated 24 January 1947,

I order:

1. The authorized representative of the Soviet AG for Potash Fertilizers, General Director M. K. Nikolsky, to hand over the potash mine Klein-Schierstedt in Wirsleben to the authorized representative of the Province of Saxony-Anhalt, Mr. Stirmer.
2. All material assets are subject to the transfer: buildings, equipment, annexes, grounds, motor vehicles, materials, unfinished and finished products, which are actually located at the works on the day of the transfer.
3. All remaining assets and liabilities are not subject to the transfer. Settlement will be made by the Soviet AG for Potash Fertilizers.
4. The appraisal of the property is to be made upon the same basis as was the case when it was taken over by the SAG.
5. The transfer is to be ended and duly recorded by 15 March 1947, with the participation of a representative of the SMA for the Province of Saxony, Capt. V. A. Bogdanovich.
6. The calculation of the difference between the general value of the material assets to be transferred and that of the assets which have become the property of the USSR, will be determined by a special agreement between the parties.
