25X1 1.

The export quota set by the SMA for Land Saxony for the first quarter of 1947 was 22,000,000 RM and for the second quarter from 38,000,000 to 40,000,000 RM. During the second quarter, export goods valued at 30,000,000 RM were actually delivered to the SMA for export as a part of the total amount of 200,000,000 RM which the SMA received from Saxony to cover reparations, exports, and other Soviet quotas. Export goods from the textile industry were valued at 15,000,000 RM, while the leather industry produced 8,000,000 RM worth of goods for export.
