(1) YEH Ching (集首), formerly named (TE Cho-helian (任 享 宣)
a native of Nanch ung (106 04, 30-48), Szechuan, was a former student of CHANG Lan
(張 湖), Chairman of the Chine Democratic League After graduating from the Nanchung Riddle School, of which CHANG Ian was the Principal, JEN went to Shanghai and joined the CCP under CR*EN Tu-heiu. Then JEN went to France as a laborer and atudied there at the same time as CHOU En-lai. After returning to China from France, JCN was called to Smechuan by CHANG Lan, who was then President of Chengtu University and JEN was made Secretary and Professor of the University. Later JEN was appointed by the CCP to study in SUN Yet-sen University in Moscow, where he stayed for more than three years. He then returned to China and became the CCP Secretary-General of Hupeh and Human Provinces. About 1927 JEN was arrested by the Kuomintang and sentenced to death; two shots did not kill him -he pretended to be dead and then escaped in the night. Not long after this attempt to execute him JEN was arrested for a second time. This time he surrendered to the Kuomintang and changed his name from JEN Cho-ahuan to YEH Ching. In 1938 YEH wrote anti-CCP articles in Min I (see paragraph 2). His services were not appreciated by the CEVEN brothers and their CC Clique; at this time the CCP accused YEH of being a Trotskyist. About 1939 K'ANG Tae () appointed YEH as Chief Instructor of the Japanese-Returned Students Special Training Class at the Whampon Military Academy. K'ANO Tse, a Whampoa Eilitary Clique leader, was a former schoolmate of TEH at SUN Int-sen University, During 1940 YEH published Nodern Trends of Thought (Hsien Tai SSu Ch'so/列 代 原 河) in which he analy the theories of Dr. SUN Int-sen's Sen Vin Chu I. About 1941 when the Political Science Clique leader RSIUMG Shih-hei (長 京) was Governor of Kiangsi and concurrently Chairman of the San Min Chu I Cultural Ecoment Committee, YES) in which he analyzed was made Vice Chairman of this Committee. In 1944 TEH became a reserve member of the Central Executive Committee of the Kuomintang TEH has written articles on remearch on the San Min Chu I. YEH does not agree to the interpretation of the San Min Chu I given by CH'EN Li-fu and has had several ren fights with CH'EN and other CC Clique numbers on this subject

(4) LI Chi (李子), former member of the CCP, was called an "opportunist" by the Part; and was rurged in 1929. LI's early writings include a book entitled the Biography of Karl Mark. In 1947 LI's articles affeared in College (Ta Hsuch/大学) a morthly magazine of the Democratic League and of various leftist writers. In Afril 1947 the Richteousness Neckly (Cheng Pao Chou K an/王城 通 利), CCP organ rublished in Hongkong, advertised a new book writter by LI as follows: "1947's New Book of the North China Literary Series—"WANG Kuei and LI Hsiang-hsiang (王黄一孝香) by LI Chi with a preface written by KUO Mo-jo (羽); 治治)". This book cannot be purchased in Shanghai. It is possible that LI has been re-instated by the CCP because followers in China of the so-called Fourth International generally do not like the pro-Stalinist writer KUO Ko-jo; LI would most probably not have KUO write the preface to his book if LI were still connected with Chinese Trotskyists.

- 4. The former official organ of the so-called Fourth International in China was Tou Chang (片) $ /Struggle), published in Shanghai Articles in this publication criticized the CCP and pro-Stalinist writers such as KUO Mo-jo and MAO Tun (美元)
- 5 The present organ representing members in China of the so-called Fourth International is called Hein Sheng (新春 /New Voice). The magazine was first published in Karch 1926. It was formerly called China Nien Yu Fu Hu (青年 城 安) Youth and Women). The Publisher of Hein Sheng is China China-kuang (藤春) probably an alias). (See Attachment I).

 Another Trotscrist organization called The China Revolutionary Struggle Pioneers' Society (Clung Kuo Ke Ming Tou Cheng Heien Ch'u She/中国革命門手先縣社) also known as the China Democratic United Federation (Chung Kuo Min Chu Tung I Lien Ho Hui/中國足主統,一時合會) was reportedly established by CHEIG Heuch Chia, LIU Ning, LI Chi, KUO Yu-han (see paragraph 3 above) in 1946 with its head-quarters in Shanghai. It is possible that the magazine Hein Sheng is connected with this organization.
