1. Stefan Szumowski, Polish Minister in Buenos Aires, was scheduled to leave Buenos Aires for Warsaw 23 June via Air France to present to the Warsaw Government an Argentine trade treaty proposal. He plans to be absent from Argentina three or four weeks.

2. Szumowski recently conferred with Miguel Miranda and Foreign Minister Juan Brawuglia concerning the proposed treaty and found them both anxious to begin negotiations. The Argentine Covernment believes it can buy between 50 and 100 million dollars worth of goods from Poland yearly and that a similar amount of Argentine products could be exchanged in return. However, Szumowski believes the annual trade between the two countries will not exceed a combined total of 50 million dollars.
