1. Groups of young Haitian intellectuals allegedly are organizing to revenge the assassination of Alfred Visu, the lynched killer of Jean Remy, according to the Haitian police.
2. [redacted] if these groups are successful in this attempt, the situation could become so involved that an overthrow of the present government might be attempted.
3. An anti-government propaganda campaign reportedly is underway. Handbills listing names of officials supposedly responsible for the assassination of Visu are being distributed, and government employed mulattos who attended the funeral of Visu are being dismissed.
4. [redacted] police officials, especially within the mulatto circle, resent the inability of the Police Department to make a thorough investigation of the killing of Visu because of interference by high officials.
