SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

- 1. Colonel Miguel Angel Ramirez, Dominican revolutionary leader, did not leave Costa Rica on 5 September, as reported in [REDACTED], but planned to depart on 10 September for Guatemala. It was formerly reported that he would arrange to transport Arnulfo Arias from the Guatemalan border to his ultimate destination, but Ramirez personally denied any cooperation with Arias. A subsequent report indicates that Ramirez will confer in Guatemala with Juan Rodriguez and President Arevalo regarding changes in Caribbean Legion plans that were effected by Dominican revolutionary leader Juan Bosch and Frio Socarras, Cuban president-elect, on their recent visit in Guatemala.
- 2. Among those who were also scheduled to depart from Costa Rica on 10 September for Guatemala are Rosendo Arguello Junior, who will try to arrange the transfer of his 136 Nicaraguan trainees to Guatemalan territory; Ricardo Orue Reyes, who will observe Guatemalan aspects of affairs of the Caribbean Legion and report on them to the Nicaraguan Liberal Independent party; Felipe Arguello Bolanos, who will travel as one of the first in a contemplated mass exodus of Nicaraguan conservatives from Costa Rica to Guatemala. Other persons are probably accompanying Arguello Bolanos on this trip, with the balance of the group to follow next week.
