1. General Castillo Andino, Honduran revolutionary leader in Guatemala, [REDACTED] Dominican General Juan Rodriguez, Honduran Generals Armando Rodriguez and Toribio Ramos, and Nicaraguan General Emiliano Chamorro had agreed to join Juan Rodriguez in an attempt to overthrow President Carias of Honduras and General Somoza of Nicaragua. All the above named are believed to be in Guatemala City at the present.
2. Part of the Caribbean Legion has been transferred to Quezaltenango, Guatemala, with troops also dispatched along the Guatemalan-Honduran border. Arms and ammunition are being purchased with $60,000 received by Armando Rodriguez from Tegucigalpa on 15 November.
3. Honduran exile leaders in Guatemala were advised by the underground movement in Tegucigalpa that an active revolt was being planned there to prevent Juan Galvez from assuming the Honduran presidency, and the aid of the exiles was requested in carrying out this move.
