1. The Yugoslavs have allegedly moved the colored stone border markers along the Trieste-Yugoslav border to incorporate the following areas of the town of Maresego into Yugoslavia: Rosariol, Bozzai, Tuscolo and Versice (Tersecco). (See attached sketch).
2. While most of the inhabitants of these areas are Yugoslavs, a protest committee was formed to go to Capodistria; this action resulted in certain individuals receiving beatings, their homes being searched and their food being seized.
