SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. The Dutch are about to begin political talks with Soekarno, Hatta and Sjahrir. If these preliminary feelers are unsuccessful, the Republican Government in Sumatra will continue. Unless the Dutch withdraw to the status quo lines there appears little possibility of the Republican leaders accepting Dutch proposals.
2. Guerrilla activity will greatly increase in the next few days. The Tasikmalaya area and the outskirts of Batavia are filling up with guerrillas. Guerrilla activity is expected to be the strongest in West Java and Sumatra.
3. On the morning of 29 December, Soekarno, Hatta and Sjahrir were taken by plane to Sumatra, probably to the Lake Toba area. There they could be released without being able to go anywhere.
4. Guerrilla activity is already beginning to worry the Dutch. Being interned together enabled the Republican leaders to decide on a common policy of resistance.
