SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

A guide for Spanish Communist resistance in Spain, which according to source was drawn up by Generals Enrique LISTER, Juan MODESTO and Francisco MATZ and introduced into resistance circles by Jesus MONZON and Gabriel LEON Trilla, reportedly is being followed as closely as possible by Communist resistance groups within Spain. 25X1A6a
 Comment. Jesus MONZON, according to Mundo Obrero of 12 February 1948, was expelled from the Spanish Communist Party for treason.) The following tasks are assigned to the Spanish Communists residing inside Spain:

"As soon as circumstances permit, upon receipt of the following instructions by our Spanish Communists they will be strictly and punctually observed. If this is not the case, then through our sources the General Commissariat should be advised of the impossibility of fulfillment, and new instructions should be awaited.

"1. A detailed study of all vital points in the railroad system with emphasis on bridges and tunnels. This study must include the nature of the construction material, the height of the targets, the observation posts of railroad police, and the length of all bridges and tunnels together with the tonnage which they can carry. This material should be typewritten on the finest onion skin paper or copied as microscopically as possible by hand, and sent to the Commissariat by the surest means of communication.

"2. The agents of complete confidence will indicate by setting out initials the names of people who can be trusted and who are owners of launches, fishing craft, motor boats, and other small craft along the Spanish coasts.

"3. A detailed report containing initials of people who are proprietors of hunting goods stores or who own large amounts of arms and ammunition, specifying in each case their locations by city, street and number. Later, all those professional sportsmen who are members of our organization will be given the task of compiling complete lists of the names of these people.
